2019/20 SEASON

WELCOME TO ST JOHN'S SMITH SQUARE

St John's Smith Square provides a home for the best in Baroque music, within the UK's only concert hall dating from the Baroque period, whilst equally championing creative exploration and new music. International artists sit comfortably alongside emerging talent, and we continue to provide a vital and unique home for the best in community music.

You can find a rich diversity of events within this programme, and opera, oratorio, symphony, concerto sit alongside song, chamber music and solo recitals to make a rich and diverse programme this season. I hope you will find many concerts that entice you and to offer you a regular welcome to St John's Smith Square. Our concert journey through the autumn reaches a joyous climax with the 34th Christmas Festival at St John's, from 8th to 23rd December. These concerts are always such a firm favourite and often sell out well in advance so, to be sure to secure your place, do book early.

We are delighted to host many partners throughout the season and to feature the best chamber orchestras, choirs and ensembles at St John's Smith Square. You can enjoy our regular Thursday Lunchtime Concerts and Organ Series featuring both established ensembles and emerging artists. Don't forget to allow time to dine in the atmospheric Footstool Restaurant.

St John's Smith Square is unique amongst London's concert halls – it is the oldest, yet most flexible, concert hall in London and we are very proud that we are able to offer a programme which is so diverse yet filled with events and festivals of deep integrity.

St John's Smith Square is only able to provide this programme thanks to the generosity of our wonderful Friends and Patrons. This support is crucial to our success (ticket sales alone can never meet the needs of our busy artistic and community programme, let alone the costs of maintaining our wonderful Grade I listed home). Please help us in our mission by joining the Friends of St John's Smith Square. Thank you for your support!

I hope you will find the programme and your future visits to St John's Smith Square stimulating and interesting and I would be very interested to hear any thoughts and comments about your experiences.

I look forward to welcoming you soon.

50th ANNIVERSARY APPEAL

2019/20 marks our 50th season as a concert hall, the opening concert at the newly reconstructed St John's Smith Square having taken place on 5th October 1969. Throughout the forthcoming year we will be hosting a range of events to celebrate this anniversary. Do watch out for further announcements about these.

The reconstruction and opening of St John's as a concert hall came about due to the incredible support and dedication of the community (led by Lady Parker of Waddington) who had the vision to enable this incredible concert hall to rise from the ruins of the war-ravaged and derelict church which occupied this site. Thanks to the generosity of all those who contributed to realising this wonderful ambition we now, 50 years on, continue to enjoy world class music making within one of the most sublime heritage settings in the UK.

The success of St John's has always been thanks to the fabulous support of those who love the building and the music which comes to life within it. This is as true today as it was 50 years ago. St John's Smith Square is a registered charity and receives no core subsidy from any source. Our income is made up of revenue from ticket sales; fees we receive from renting out the hall; income from catering and merchandising; and gifts from generous supporters. Ticket sales alone only cover a small part of our costs and to maintain this wonderful Grade I listed building whilst offering a world class programme of concerts and events we need to find approximately £250,000 every year.

For our 50th anniversary year we are launching an appeal. We are seeking funds to support the artistic programme; invest in the building; and develop our operating model. Any support will go towards increasing our sustainability by enabling us to develop further earned income.

Please consider making a donation towards our 50th anniversary appeal. Either send a cheque, made out to 'St John's Smith Square' to: 'St John's Smith Square, London, SW1P 3HA' or look online at www.sjs.org.uk/donations to find other ways to give.

Thank you for your support of St John's Smith Square.

OUR HISTORY

EXPLORE OVER 300 YEARS OF HISTORY

The magnificent church of St John the Evangelist was designed by architect Thomas Archer as part of the 'Commission for Building Fifty New Churches' of 1710. St John's was the most elaborate of all, with construction lasting 14 years, from 1714 to 1728, and costing the princely sum of £40,875 (approximately £5.2m today).

For over 200 years, St John's served as a parish church, though not without incident. In 1742 a major fire led to extensive restoration and modification to Archer's design. In 1815 the church was struck by lightning, causing subsidence to the towers, and in the early twentieth century it was the target of a Suffragette bomb plot. Ironically, in 1928, the church hosted Emmeline Pankhurst's funeral.

Perhaps heralding the future musical life of St John's, in September 1901 Edith Hockey and Robert Britten were married here. Twelve years later, they had a son, Benjamin, who as an adult would record here with the Wandsworth School Boys' Choir.

Perhaps the most dramatic night in St John's history was 10 May 1941, the final night of the Blitz, when a direct hit from an incendiary bomb gutted the church. After the war it lay as a ruin and there was talk of turning the site into a car park. This galvanised the local people, under the leadership of Lady Parker of Waddington, to raise the funds to buy the site and commission Marshall Sisson to lead the restoration to Archer's original designs.

When the work was completed in 1969, St John's Smith Square was re-born as one of the finest concert halls in London.

Our grand opening concert was given by Joan Sutherland and Richard Bonyng (who returned in 1989 for our 20th birthday gala). There have been many other highlights over the years – the UK premiere of Karlheinz Stockhausen's Stimmung (with Stockhausen himself on sound projection); world premieres of works by Boulez, Birtwistle, Copland and Tippett by the London Sinfonietta; William Walton conducting his own 70th birthday concert; Pierre Boulez and Daniel Barenboim conducting the BBC Symphony Orchestra; an 84-year-old Sir Adrian Boult conducting the English National Orchestra; and Morton Feldman performing alongside Harrison Birtwistle and John Tilbury for BBC Radio.

We've also hosted the Menuhin School Concert, featuring students Nigel Kennedy and Melvin Tan; a 21-year-old Simon Rattle with the Salomon Orchestra; Plácido Domingo, Teresa Berganza and Ileana Cotrubaş recording Bizet's Carmen with Claudio Abbado and the London Symphony Orchestra; Philip Glass giving a chamber organ recital, and Lutosławski conducting the Philharmonia in the London premiere of his second Symphony.

Now in our 305th year, St John's Smith Square continues to grow and thrive as a busy concert hall – a majestic building resounding to beautiful music in a serene city setting.

DONATE TO ST JOHN'S SMITH SQUARE

Each year, we need to raise £250,000 to deliver our artistic and community programme and maintain our heritage as a Grade I listed building.

To make a one-off gift, or to discuss how you would like to support a specific concert, festival or artistic programme, contact us on 020 7222 2168, or email fundraising@sjs.org.uk.

FOOTSTOOL RESTAURANT

EXPERIENCE FINE DINING

Nestled beneath the Hall under the vaulted ceiling of the crypt, the Footstool Restaurant is an elegant and cosy place to enjoy everything from a delicious snack or light meal, to a sumptuous lunch or dinner.

All our food is freshly prepared by our talented chefs using locally-sourced, seasonal ingredients.

Indulge in fine loose leaf tea and homemade cake; choose from our enticing daily buffet menu; dine à la carte before a concert; or enjoy a glass of wine and a grazing board during the interval. Our friendly staff will be on hand, whatever you choose.

Legend has it the church of St John's was dubbed 'Queen Anne's Footstool' after architect Thomas Archer asked Queen Anne for her view on how it should look. Kicking over her footstool she replied "like that!" The four towers are said to mimic the upturned footstool. The restaurant keeps this charming nickname alive.

The Footstool Restaurant takes à la carte reservations for lunchtime and evening service, buffet bookings for groups of ten or more, and caters for private events.

To book, or to find out more, call us on 020 7222 2779 or email stjohns@leafi.co.uk
